FIAFIA NIGHT

BEAUTIFUL EXPERIENCES

A HOLIDAY THE SAMOAN WAY WOULDN'T BE COMPLETE WITHOUT ATTENDING A FIAFIA NIGHT.

Celebrating the beautiful Samoan culture with traditional food and authentic entertainment. Visitors are given an unforgettable taste of the 3000 year old culture through spectacular singing and dancing. Fiafia translates as happy get together, and the performers are very enthusiastic and proud to be able to share their traditional culture with the audience. The performers wear traditional lava lavas (by the men) and puletasis (women) which echo the vibrant colours of Samoa.

Following a lavish traditional meal using fresh produce, the night's entertainment of story telling commences with the women performing the beautiful siva dance. The energy transforms as the men perform the faataupati (slap dance) and heats up with the siva afi (fire knife dance).

The evening culminates with the tauluga (final dance) and guests are asked to join in where they will learn a few moves to take back home to show their family and friends their beautiful experience! Attending a fiafia night is always entertaining and provides the audience with an insight into the rich 3,000 year old culture only found in Samoa - fa'a samoa (the Samoan way).
